

SIOR New Jersey Learns About the Profitability of Solar Power and Honors the Memory of an Industry Titan

Industry Groups Holds Chapter Meeting

(Woodbridge, New Jersey) Andrew Zezas, SIOR, President of the New Jersey Chapter of The Society of Industrial and Office Realtors ("SIOR") announced that the Chapter held its bi-monthly meeting yesterday at Kona Grill in Woodbridge. Twenty two members attended. Gary Weissman of Solis Partners presented a discussion on generating sustainable value for real estate owners and developers using solar power. Additionally, the chapter elected to honor the passing of a long-time member and industry titan, David Houston, by making a donation to the SIOR Foundation in Mr. Houston's name.

About the New Jersey Chapter of the Society of Industrial and Office Realtors

SIORNJ is the New Jersey Chapter of the Society of Industrial and office Realtors ("SIOR"). SIOR is a global, professional association representing the commercial real estate industry's top producers. In the world of commercial real estate, "SIOR" is the one designation certain to turn heads, to catch a client's attention—and keep it. Call it a badge of distinction. The prestigious SIOR designation is professional recognition of the highest level of achievement, knowledge, accountability, and ethical standards in today's real estate industry. Real estate transaction professionals who hold SIOR certification are instantly recognized by business and real estate executives, brokers, agents, and lenders, as some of the most experienced and capable commercial real estate practitioners in the industry.
